NOTE

We, the undersigned, have agreed to what follows : that the Treaty of Friendship, Commerce and Navigation between Great Britain and Oman, signed on the eighth day of Shaban 1308 H., corresponding to the 19th March 1891, will be prolonged by this writing notwithstanding all, or any correspondence between His Late Highness Syud Faisal bin Turki and the Glorious British Government in the matter of the revision of that Treaty. And it will remain in force for a period of one year from this eleventh day of February 1920 corresponding to the 20th Jamadi ul Awwal 1338 H., unless a suitable treaty by agreement between His Highness the Sultan of Muscat and Oman and the Glorious British Government be substituted for that ancient treaty aforesaid.

In confirmation thereof, we, that is, I Taimur bin Faisal, Sultan of Muskat and Oman, with my own hand, and I, R. E. L. Wingate Esquire, I. C. S., duly authorised agent for that purpose on behalf of the Glorious British Government, have signed this writing and five copies and have affixed our seals thereto.

Done at MUSKAT this eleventh day of February 1920, corresponding to the 20th Jamadi ul Awwal 1338 H.

R. WINGATE, I. C. S.,
Political Agent, Muscat.
Seal of Political Agency.

Arabic signature and seal :

TAIMUR BIN FAISAL,
Sultan of Muskat and Oman.
