GERMANY AND TURKEY

Treaty of Friendship, signed at Angora, March 3, 1924.

French official text communicated by the German Consul-General at Geneva <sup>3</sup>. The registration of this Treaty took place November 28, 1925.

GERMANY, on the one part, and TURKEY, on the other part, being desirous of establishing and strengthening the ties of sincere friendship between the German Republic and the Turkish Republic, and equally convinced that such relations between the two States when once established will further the prosperity and well-being of their respective nations, have decided to conclude a Treaty of Friendship and for this purpose have appointed as their Plenipotentiaries :

THE PRESIDENT OF THE GERMAN REPUBLIC :

His Excellency M. H. FREYTAG, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of Germany at Bucharest ;

THE PRESIDENT OF THE TURKISH REPUBLIC :

His Excellency TEWFIK KIAMIL Bey, Under-Secretary of State in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs ;

Who, having communicated their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon the following provisions :

Article 1.

There shall be inviolable peace and sincere and perpetual friendship between the German Republic and the Turkish Republic.

Article 2.

The High Contracting Parties agree to establish diplomatic relations between the two States in conformity with the principles of international law. They agree that the diplomatic representatives of each of them shall, subject to reciprocity, receive in the territory of the other the treatment recognised by the principles of general international public law.

<sup>2</sup> The exchange of ratifications took place at Constantinople, May 1, 1924.

Article 3.

The High Contracting Parties are agreed that the consular and commercial relations between their respective countries, the conditions of the establishment and residence of the nationals of either Party in the territory of the other and the assistance which the judicial authorities of the two Parties must afford each other in certain legal matters shall be regulated by conventions to be concluded in conformity with the rules of general public international law on a basis of complete reciprocity.

Article 4.

The present Treaty shall be ratified and the ratifications exchanged at Constantinople as soon as possible. It shall come into force on the 15th day following the exchange of ratifications.

In faith whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Treaty and have thereto affixed their seals.

Done in duplicate at Angora, March 3, 1924.
