PROTOCOL

SIGNED AT VIENNA, NOVEMBER 30, 1923.

The Representatives of THE AUSTRIAN REPUBLIC and of THE CZECHOSLOVAK REPUBLIC have concluded a Convention concerning the distribution of the retiring pensions and annuities to the surviving dependants of former Pragmatic employees of the Administration of the property formerly constituted as an inalienable endowment for the House of Hapsburg-Lorraine or one of its collateral branches.

They make, on this subject, the following declarations :

1. The Representative of the Austrian Government declares that there exists no funds being endowed with legal personnalituy, the object of which is to pay pensions to the employees referred to.

The Representative of the Czechoslovak Government takes note of the above and declares that he will not, for the present, claim the distribution of a pension fund which will probably be created, but reserves the right, if it should prove that the fund in question is endowed with legal personality, to ask later for the distribution of such a fund.

2. The Representative of the Czechoslovak Government declares that the ratification of the Convention by his Government will only take place when the competent authority has decided that the capital value of the charges of pensions accepted will be deducted when, in accordance with Article 208 of the Treaty of Saint-Germain, the immovable property transferred will be estimated.

Done at Vienna, November 30, 1923.
