LEGATION
OF THE POLISH REPUBLIC
AT TALLINN.

No. 965/30.

Since the Hague Convention² of July 17, 1905, concerning civil procedure lays down that it is necessary for the signatory States to make certain declarations and leaves the said States free to agree together on the settlement of certain questions in a manner other than that laid down by the provisions of the said Convention, the Polish Legation, on instructions from its Government, has the honour to make the following proposals:

Ad Article I, Paragraph I.

Application for service of legal documents on persons in Poland should be made by the Estonian Consuls to the Presidents of the District Courts in the place of residence of the person concerned.

At the same time, the Polish Legation begs to be informed which would be the competent Estonian authorities to receive applications from Polish Consuls in Estonia for service of legal documents.

Ad Article 9, Paragraph 1.

Letters rogatory for execution in Polish territory should be forwarded to the Ministry of Justice.

The Polish Legation would be grateful if the Ministry of Foreign Affairs would state which would be the competent Estonian authorities to receive letters rogatory transmitted through the Polish Consuls in Estonia for execution in Estonian territory.

Ad Article 6.

Subject to reciprocity, the Polish Government agrees that service of legal documents should be made in the manner laid down in paragraphs I and 3 of Article 6, section I. On the other hand, it cannot allow such service to be made in the manner laid down in paragraph 2 of the same section.

The Polish Government requests the Ministry of Foreign Affairs to be so good as to inform it whether the Estonian Government agrees to adopt the same method of forwarding applications for service of legal documents from the Polish authorities for execution in Estonian territory. Should the Polish Government and the Estonian Government agree on this matter, an exchange of declarations concerning it might take place.

Ad Article 18, Paragraph 3.

The Polish Government agrees that on Polish territory the requests for exequatur dealt with in this Article may be made direct by the interested parties to the competent authorities.

Further to the above-mentioned proposals, the Polish Legation has the honour to state that the Polish Government desires to come to an agreement with the Government of Estonia upon the language in which service of legal documents is to be made and letters rogatory are to be drawn up, in accordance with Articles 3 and 10 and paragraph 3 of section 2 of Article 19 of the said Convention; and on its side proposes that the French language should be used for that purpose.
