EGYPT

Resolution adopted by the International Labour Conference at its Twentieth Session, on June 16th, 1936, inviting Egypt to accept Membership in the International Labour Organisation ;
Note from the Egyptian Government accepting this Invitation, Geneva, June 19th, 1936.

No. 4096. — RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY THE INTERNATIONAL LABOUR CONFERENCE AT ITS TWENTIETH SESSION, ON JUNE 16TH, 1936, INVITING EGYPT¹ TO ACCEPT MEMBERSHIP IN THE INTERNATIONAL LABOUR ORGANISATION.

French official text communicated by the Egyptian Minister for Foreign Affairs. English official text communicated by the International Labour Office. The registration of this Resolution took place April 20th, 1937.

THE INTERNATIONAL LABOUR CONFERENCE,

Whereas the Secretary-General of the Conference has been informed by the Egyptian Government that it would be willing to accept membership in the International Labour Organisation ;

Recalling that it has always been the firm conviction of the Organisation that its ends could be more effectively advanced if the membership of the Organisation could be made universal ;

Hereby decides :

To invite the Government of Egypt to accept membership in the International Labour Organisation, it being understood that such acceptance involves only those rights and obligations provided for in the Constitution of the Organisation and shall not involve any obligations under the Covenant of the League of Nations ;

And further decides :

That, in the event of the Government of Egypt accepting membership, the Governing Body is hereby authorised to arrange with the Government of Egypt any questions arising out of its membership, including the question of its financial contribution.

¹ The acceptance of Egypt is effective as from June 19th, 1936.

GENEVA, June 19th, 1936.

SIR,

By letter of 16 June 1936 you informed me that the International Labour Conference had unanimously adopted a Resolution inviting Egypt to accept Membership of the International Labour Organisation. You were also good enough to enclose a copy of the Resolution and a copy of the Constitution of the International Labour Organisation.

In reply to this communication and under instructions from my Government, I have the honour to inform you that the Egyptian Government has decided to accept the invitation which you forwarded me. It is understood that this acceptance implies the acceptance of the Constitution of the International Labour Organisation.

I have the honour to be, etc.

(Signed) ABDEL-FATTAH ASSAL,
*Chargé d'Affaires par interim of Egypt
at Berne.*
