AMBASSADE DE GRANDE-BRETAGNE.

N<sup>o</sup> 310.

ROME, le 14 décembre 1937.

MONSIEUR LE MINISTRE,

Pour faire suite aux échanges de vues qui ont eu lieu récemment à Rome au sujet de la Convention concernant l'établissement de lignes aériennes de transport signée à Rome le 7 décembre 1934, j'ai l'honneur de consigner ci-après les conclusions auxquelles ces échanges de vues ont abouti en ce qui concerne l'application future de cette convention:

1. Le lac Bracciano (la partie occidentale du lac approximativement délimitée par une ligne reliant Bracciano à Trevignano) sera ajouté à la liste des terrains d'atterrissement et plans d'amerrissage indiqués au paragraphe 3 de l'article 3 que les compagnies britanniques de navigation aérienne auront le droit d'utiliser.

2. Quant aux arrangements relatifs aux terrains d'atterrissement qui doivent être conclus entre les compagnies italiennes de navigation aérienne et le Gouvernement soudanais conformément aux dispositions du dernier alinéa de l'article premier et du paragraphe 2 de l'article 4, le Gouvernement de Sa Majesté dans le Royaume-Uni s'est assuré que le gouverneur général du Soudan ne voit pas d'objection à ce que ces arrangements comportent, à la demande des compagnies italiennes de navigation aérienne, le droit pour les appareils de ces compagnies, dans l'exploitation des services commerciaux aériens à travers le Soudan, d'effectuer au cours de leurs vols à destination de l'Italie une première escale à Khartoum sans être tenus d'effectuer une escale intermédiaire en territoire soudanais avant d'atteindre cette localité. De même, les appareils venant d'Italie auront le droit d'effectuer une dernière escale à Khartoum sans effectuer d'escale intermédiaire en territoire soudanais après avoir quitté cette localité.

Il est entendu que les services italiens de navigation aérienne continueront également à bénéficier du droit d'atterrir à Kassala, sur le trajet Khartoum-Kassala-Asmara.

3. Les arrangements exposés dans les paragraphes précédents de la présente note resteront en vigueur pendant toute la durée de validité de la convention susmentionnée.
